Subject: YMCA YBL Week 7

Hi Everyone,

Just wanted to touch base with everyone to let them know what the rest of our YBL season looks like. Next week, Feb. 11th is our last week! For that last day of YBL we will get right into our games and then around half past we will be presenting trophies for each game! The game and the trophy presentation should be completed within that hour time slot. Also, for the last day we will have a staff set up outside the door with a lab top for registration for our YBL extension, which is the March Madness. Feel free to bring checks and or a credit card to sign up that day! If you for some reason can't sign up that day the front desk will also be taking payments for March Madness.

Onto tomorrows games! We will meet in the center of the gym like always and split up into our courts like usual. Ten minutes of practice and then game! Below I have attached this week's game schedule:
